

And One, One DRIVING WITH MY DARLING

Early Sunday morning thousand drinks I've understood driving with my darling faster as I should

A green man stops me friendly one look - he starts to smile he says: "never let me see your face again" I'm easy for a while

But I think, I'm a fool try to breath under water

Driving with my darling
faster than I should Driving with my darling
Forever if we could

Fool is on the road again so danger isn't far bang! deep green crashing metal police just lost a car
