

And One, The Dream

naked on the ocean floor i'm waiting for a saviour the deepest dark i ever saw wishing me back to shore i know things couldn't be undone mindless all the games i won a special pain award

i wish i could break it apart sorry for playing with your heart hoping you will change your mind cause there is no way for me to unbind

a special pain award
so lift me back on board
