

Anders Johansson, She Said

I never used to care about tomorrow no no Living day to day without a trace Whatever I did it just felt hollow ooh feeling incomplete in every way ooh

And there you stood in front of me ooh
Like a vision to set me free

And she said
I can make you see aaaah
If you just open up to me aaaah
'Cause when you came into my life
I went from darkness to light
And you said
Open up to me aaaah
Just for me

Where ever this may take me I will follow ooh There's nothing here to hold me anyway oh no Cause I can do without the pain and sorrow
I rather be alive than fade away

And there you stood in front of me
Like a vision to set me free

I can make you see aaaah
If you just open up to me aaaah
When you came into my life
went from darkness to light
And you said
open up for me aaaah
just for me

ooh

she said I can make you see wohooohh (if you just)open up to me
wohooohh
Came into my life
went from darkness to light
open up for me aaah

she said I can make you see aaah
If you just open up to me ahhh
When you came into my life
I went from darkness to light
Open up for me aahh
Just for me
