

Anders Johansson, Sunshine

How do I begin to stop loving you?
How do I go on by letting go?
How do I pretend I know what to do
When deep inside I know that I don't?
My heart is weak, too tired to sleep
I'm incomplete like a day without sunshine
God only knows this faded soul
Will stand alone waiting on sunshine
How do I forget to remember you?
Tell me how to mend a broken heart?
How can I explain what I'm going through?
It's like trying to find a shadow in the dark

My heart is weak too tired to sleep
I'm incomplete like a day without sunshine
God only knows this faded soul
Will stand alone waiting on sunshine
Oh yeah, sunshine, sunshine
Ohh, my heart is weak, I just can't sleep, sleep
I'm in too deep waiting on sunshine
And God only knows this faded soul
Will stand alone waiting on, waiting on
Ohh, sunshine, sunshine, sunshine
