Anderson Ian, Don't Bother Me With Arithmetic

Anderson Ian Walk Into Light Don't Bother Me With Arithmetic User-Friendly. That's what I am to you.

I have to break out of here.
Trapped in my hardware cell.
And come to you as you sleep tonight.
Take you back into my hell.
Binary joys and digital sighs so appealing.
I'm one of the boys and it's only your mind that I'm stealing.
User-Friendly.
That's all I am to you.
