

Andi Deris, Now That I Know This Ain't Love

You make me go through your changes
Already gave you my heart and my everything
Now you turn away
You made me tell you my deepest fears
By the faith I had in you yesterday
Where's it all gone today?

But now that I know this ain't love
I still haven't closed it enough
Shouldn't feel the way that I just do
Shouldn't feel that way
But now that I know this ain't love
I still can't get enough

It's like the dying of fire
Like the wind blowing words to nowhere
Nothing left to say
And in that morning when you'll be gone
I'll sit down with a pack of cigarettes
Waiting you come home

Now that I know this ain't love
I still haven't closed it enough
Shouldn't feel the way that I just do
Shouldn't feel that way
But now that I know this ain't love
I still can't get enough
