

Andrea Bocelli, Go Where Love Goes

(feat. Holly Stell)

I can fly in my mind
To a place
Peaceful and full of grace
Come with me
You will see
Love is there to make us whole again
A love that only love knows

Go where love goes
Go where your heart leads Angels are pleading with you
Go there
Go where love dares

Gather me in your arms Hold me close like lazarus
To rise again like a bird
To fly again
In flowers dreams
So love can feed your soul (love feeds your soul)
love will make you whole (love makes you whole)
so

go where love goes
go there
to go

love makes the rainbow love is the dawns glow love makes the rose grow reaching for heaven so

dream how love dreams love feeds the dreamers angels are calling you to go there go where love dares go...
