

Andreas Johnson, Seven Days

Seven days away
Think I thought
I heard you say Where I want to be
is with you my sweet mystery Seven days ahead for a week I stay in bed Now where I want to be
is with you my sweet mystery
Don't leave me broken
Don't leave me sad
Now where I wanna be
is with you my sweet mystery
Seven days I'll wait
Seven days you're much too late
In everything I see
is you my sweet mystery
Don't leave me broken
Don't leave me sad
Now where I wanna be
is with you my sweet mystery
In everything I see
is you my sweet mystery
You my sweet mystery
