

Andreas Johnson, Show me

Ive never seen you shine so bright
Little black magic baby dressed in white
I never thought I would ever taste your fire
And when the sun bleeds in to the sea
Yeah when the moon steals the scenery
You flood this room with mad desire
Now show me love
Show me all your love tonight
Show me love
Show me beautiful love, love for life
I never seen you so in place
Little miss shameless with perfect grace
I never thought I would lose on my own ground
But hey honey Im so aware
Of what youre doing now I just dont care
Just let me ride before I crash down
And show me love
Show me all your love tonight
Show me love
Show me beautiful love, love for life
Now baby tonight we will not surrender
No we will not surrender
No we will not give up this fight
Cause baby tonight its the final call for lovers
The time to lose all the covers
The time to dream this dream alive
Show me love.....
