

Andrew Lloyd Webber, Woman In White

SOLO

Shes everyone at once and nowhere.

So you wonder did you really see.

The Sadness in her eyes, her beauty.

Is she real its all a mystery.

Deep within in your soul you fell her.

Deep within you heart you care, you reach out shes gone and you unsure she was ever there.

She calls to you from every shadow, and you think you see her silhouette.

A dream that you cant quite remember.

But a face you cant forget.

The Women In White

Will haunt you. Will haunt you.
