

Andrew Schore, More Than Just

More than just,
I need more than just,
I want more than just!

You say you want me now, but how's it gonna be tomorrow?
You say you need me now (you need me now)
but how's it gonna be tomorrow?

-chorus-
I want more than just--
more than just,
a twenty-four hour relationship,
If you really want me, you've got to commit

You say you want me now, but then you push me aside
If you really want me babe, you're feelings don't you hide!

and I sit here now, wonderin' what could've been,
did you really want me, or am I mistaken?

You say you want me now,
But how's it gonna be tomorrow?
You say you need me now (you need me now)
But how's it gonna be tomorrow?

-chorus-

You say you want me now,
But how's it gonna be tomorrow?
That I can sooth your pain and sorrow

Girl, I'm so confused your pulling me in two directions,
Your loves contagious, you're blindin' me with your affections!
Twenty-four hours a day I hear you callin' (CALLIN') me,
Just make up your mind and then we'll see, ye-ah..

You say you want me now
but how's it gonna be tomorrow?
You say you need me now,
but how's it gonna be tomorrow?

-chorus-

You say you want me now,
but how's it gonna be tomorrow,
You say you need me now,
But how's it
gonna be tomorrow?

You say you want me now!
