

Android Lust, Refuse (this Rotted Heart)

I have been broken, polluted, destroyed
Ripped apart and crushed by a thousand lies
You may have wanted to see the changes
As the rage erupts and bleeds out of my eyes
The closer I come to end this frustration
My will dissolves I'm left to lick my wounds
Did you ever realize my strength that you devoured
Will rot your heart from inside out
