

Andy Park, Take Me Away

I am looking for, I am long for the place where I can lay my head upon Your breast I am looking for the place where You will pour Your oil over me all over me

(Chorus)

Pour over me, Pour over me, Your oil, of perfect peace

I am looking for, the time when I can steal away, to find the place of rest, the place of peace

I am looking for the time to steal away and be with you, to be with You

Take me away, Take me away, So I can be with You
