

Andy Summers, Scary Voices

I have tried to succeed
everything I do
is scaring me

To possess
to have won everything that's underneath the sun

Scary voices
echo
in my head

I can see

I am blind
everyone I love
I leave behind

Hold on and take control hold on and save your soul be sure before you rise hold on it's in your eyes

I have tried
to succeed
everything I do
is scaring me
