

Andy Zipf, Are We Going Down?

Oh child are we going down
To the edge of the river town
I lost my love upon that ground
oh child are we going down

I will rest my weary head in the calm of the river bed
I lost my love upon that ground

you speak to me from beyond the grave
I've been betrayal
I've been betrayed
I lost my love upon that ground
oh child are we going down
