

Anekdoten, Eden

take the railroad to the ending of the rainbow through the pain to salvation show us how to find the way to the beginning lost and found, homeward bound bite the fruit and leave the life you've lived behind you don't look down, keep climbing tell us more about the things that we will find once we're whole, once we're through and born anew show devotion and I will give you your freedom, composure and redemption prove your faith to me and I will set you free once we're whole, once we're through when we are born anew
