

Angelas Dish, Lock You Out

I thought the other day of how we used to kiss
To be honest girl it nearly made me sick
It's not because i hate you or i want you to die
But i dragged this out when i should've said goodbye
You say "let's work this out" but things don't change
And i can't help it's just not the same
And so i'm changing all my passwords now
Anything to lock you out
Forget about the things i said
Cause i was messing with your head
Don't try to tell me that i've lost it all
Don't flatter yourself girl
Cause whilst you're crying i've been moving on
I heard the other day that you got with my friend
To be honest girl it just made me laugh
So don't pick up the phone and go crazy at me
Cause you're just as bad and everyone can see
You say that i have changed and yes that's true
You see i'm happy and better off without you
And so i'm changing all my passwords now
Anything to lock you out
Forget about the things i said
Cause I was messing with your head
Don't try to tell me that i've lost it all
Don't flatter yourself girl
Cause whilst you're crying i've been moving on
And so i'm changing all the passwords now
Anything to lock you out
Forget about the things i said
Cause I was messing with your head
Don't try to tell me that i've lost it all
Don't flatter yourself girl
Cause whilst you're crying i've been moving on