

Anggun, A Rose In The Wind

I was born at daybreak / To the road i did take Trembling as the ground shakes / Under my feet
Cracked in the stone heat

Never ending motion / Way across the ocean
Into your devotion / Long have i gone
So far from my home

What to do with this love that i'm in?
I have given you all of my soul
Flying all my life like a rose in the wind
Tell me why i am always alone
On my way home

Dreaming always begins / Find a door that's opening
Something there is shining / The light in your eyes
When you were all mine

All alone as i wake / Moving in a new place
Shivering as i trace / A road of my own
Cut by the deep cold

What to do with this love that i'm in?
I have given you all of my soul
Flying all of my life like a rose in the wind
Tell me why i am always alone
Hang on to me tight, and a rose in the wind
Will be with you wherever you go
All the way back home

Can i take you back there? / Drifting on the warm air
Say you'll follow me anywhere / All of our nights
Into the jade skies

I'll be true to you / Flying over the moon
Lying in the bamboo / I'll always know
The light in the window

What to do with this love that i'm in?
I have given you all of my soul
Flying all of my life like a rose in the wind
Tell me why i am always alone
