

Anggun, Chrysalis

Like a tiger
Know how to lure you with my feline touch
A trouble spider
Can make a trap to catch the one I want

But fine as a white dove
I'd do anything for the one I love
To get that one kiss
I'll wait patiently like a chrysalis

Just remember
That I can be strong and tender
Just remember
And beware

'Cause I know
The way to break your heart
The way to tell a lie
Like you do
Oh, yes I know
The way to make you cry
The way to give you doubts
Like you do

Satisfy me
What you to treat me like I'm the queen bee
The woman in me
Just like a wild horse I need to run free

Like a butterfly
I can be sweet and very infantile
A viper, a cobra
I also can be viciously unkind

Just remember
That I can be strong and tender
Just remember
And beware

'Cause I know
The way to break your heart
The way to tell a lie
Like you do
Oh, yes I know
The way to make you cry
The way to give you doubts
Like you do

I know
Just remember
I can do what you do
I know
Just remember
And beware
