

Angie Aparo, So Bad

I wanna choke
I wanna lay down
It's harder to cope
With you not here now
The shadow needs a sun
A dreamer needs a first star
I know it's just begun
To feel so bad
For so long
It's all I've had
Since you've been gone
If you don't come back home
It's gonna be so bad
For so long
Out on the road
I am a wheel now
You are the spoke
And out love goes round
A shadow needs a sun
A dreamer needs a first star
I know it's just begun
To feel so bad
For so long
It's all I've had
Since you've been gone
And if you don't come back home
It's gonna be so bad
For so long
So bad, so long
All I've had
Since you been gone
Gonna be so bad
So long
It's all I've had
Since you been gone
If you don't come back home
Gonna be so bad, so long
It's all I've had
Since you've been gone
So bad, so long
It's all I've had
So bad, so long
It's all I've had
Since you been gone
