

Angra, Time [5:54]

Angra
Angels Cry
Time [5:54]
(Matos, Bittencourt)

This time I wanna know what life means...
...to live it again I'm looking forward, feel the light shine in my eyes...
And now I know, my instincts were not wrong,
and many things can be done
I don't believe now,
That I'm dreaming alone

Oh, we're searching for the love that everyone's got,
but can't see [yeah] Oh, beyond the flesh and blood there's so much hidden behind as so much more we've gotta give...

Sanity brings up the sadness that keeps your illusions locked in a little box Fright comes, you find yourself lonely in a cage of conclusions crowding your mind
You sit back bowing your head, every answer - yes
Why don't you trust me
and shed out your fears, Running over the tears you've contained now cover up your eyes,
- Is it good for you?

I will be here when fire burns!...

Welcome on board
over here is the ship of your life
So rotten that will cast away I'll be your sweet lullaby
all the night
And if you get lost you can hold my hand...

And I'll be here when fire burns
[inside your heart]
Climb up the hills and mountains,
don't forget what you've learned!

Life make us feel the time we cannot hold
Time make us live
a tale already told
Time make us heal
a feeling inside
a feeling that lies in your heart
that we stole away...

Climb up the hills and mountains,
don't forget what you've learned!

Life make us feel [life make us feel]
the time we cannot hold
Time make us live [time make us live]
a tale already told
Time make us heal [time make us heal]
a feeling inside
a feeling that lies in your heart
that we stole away...
