

Angry Salad, Given Up

Angry Salad
The Guinea Pig Ep
Given Up
Once I was lost for an ending
I'd end it to try to begin
Grit my teeth, close my eyes
Turn my outsides in
Put it out...

If you take away the parts that make up the whole
You put out the light in my soul

Watching someone I'm not in beginning
Become someone I'm not in the end
I lie awake at night, my insides tighten up
Feel the lights grow dim

If you take away the parts that make up the whole
You put out the light in my soul

Given Up/Lost my inspiration
Given Up/Got no hope, no sense if he could Take it back/ Under deep sedation
Given up/ I sleep at night
And leave it all behind...
Put it out

If you take away the parts that make up the whole
You put out the light in my soul

Given up/Lost my inspiration
Given up/ Got no hope, no sense
Take it back/no sense of self to look into
Given up/no sense of self to pull me through
Given up/I think I can live without you
Given up/I think I've been knocked down

And leave it all...
It seems that I was might to die in the end.
