

Angus & Julia Stone, Soldier

I met him down by the bay, he said life is a stranger that wont go away.
He took me by surprise,
and I felt for the first time,
what its like to be alive
Im a soldier,
but I dont know how to fight.
Im your best friend
but Im scared to see you tonight.
Im the darkness,
but I want to be the light,
oh how I want to be,
oh how I want to be.
I met him down by the sea,
said I look like someone he knew.
I said I dont know anyone, so how could I possibly know you.
He touched my hand ,
finally I understand
what it means to be here with you.
Im a soldier,
but I dont know how to fight.
Im your best friend
but Im scared to see you tonight.
Im the darkness,
but I want to be the light,
oh how I want to be,
oh how I want to be.
