

Ani DiFranco, Perfect Fingers

You're a wild one
I like your smile
You do amazing things
And I can't believe you're everything
You've got perfect fingers
A velvet voice
Your eyes hold the key
And I can't believe you can see
Please hold me
Please know me
And know everything
Everything
Do you understand
You're a wise man
I feel happy when
You talk about most anything
With those perfect fingers
You've touched my heart
And you give me strength
When we're apart
Please hold me
Please know me
And know everything
It's all right here
You've got perfect fingers
And they've touched my heart
Oh they give me strength
To be apart
Please hold me
Please know me
It's all right here
It's all right here.
Please hold me
Please show me
Everything, Everything
