

Ani Lorak, Tell Me Lie

Once in my life
I've got the real treasure
There was your love
Some gentle rare pleasure
We were above
All vanity and bustle
There was a love -
A shiny air castle

You were my part
All seemed to be for ever
You touched my heart
You're greatest lover ever
How many times
You made me die in heaven
You were the light
Of every single even

Refrain:

Tell me why ( are )
We have to be apart?
Was it just my dream
You took away my heart
(I) wish you tell me lie
I do not need the truth
Cause you know that I
I'm still in love
With you

Too many words
You say I still admire
Too many nights
Are cold without your fire
It's not a crime
Betray me for the last time
Please tell me lie
You keep me in your mind

Refrain:
