

Anita Baker, Same Ole Love(365 Days)

Flashbacks of the times we've had
Some made us laugh and some made us sad
We used to break to make up
All the fun that came from those games
Oh, well, I think I need someone new
No, it just won't do
Because I think about you, baby

From beginning to end, 365 days of the year
I want your same ole love, baby, uh-huh
All I wanna do is keep on lovin' you
I want your same ole love

There's a reason I feel this way
All the things you do, well, it might be the things that you say
Your love never changes
It's like a picture in a frame and it remains the same
Your undying love for me
Oh, it keeps me strong, keeps me holding on

From beginning to end, 365 days of the year
I want your same ole love, baby, mmm, hmm
All I wanna do is share my life with you
I want your same ole love

Slowly love me
All is forsaken, I love the love we're makin'
'Cause it's truly lovely
I'll never leave you, you'll know I need you, baby

From beginning to end, 365 days of the year
I want your same ole love, baby, mmm, hmm
All I wanna do is share my life you
I want your same ole love

From beginning to end, 365 days of the year
I want your same ole love, baby, mmm, hmm
All I wanna do is share my life you
I want your same ole love

From beginning to end, 365 days of the year
I want your same ole love, baby, mmm, hmm
All I wanna do is share my life you
I want your same ole love, mmm, hmm

From beginning to end, 365 days of the year
I want your same ole love, baby
All I wanna do is share my life you
I want your same ole love
