

Anita Cochran, What If I Said

We've been friends for a long long time
You tell me your secrets and I'll tell you mine
She's left you all alone and you feel like no one cares
But I have never failed you, I've always been there
You tell your story, it sounds a bit like mine
It's the same old situation, it happens every time
Can't we see it, oh maybe you and me
Is what's meant to be, but do we disagree?
What if I told you?
What if I said that I love you?
How would you feel? What would you think? What would we do?
Do we dare to cross that line between your heart and mine?
Or would I lose a friend?
Or find a love that would never end?
What if I said?
She doesn't love you, oh it's plain to see
I can read between the lines of what you're telling me
And he doesn't hold you the way a woman should be held
How long can I go on keeping these feelings to myself
And what if I told you
What if I said that I love you?
How would you feel? What would you think? What would we do?
Do we dare to cross that line between your heart and mine?
Or would I lose a friend?
Or find a love that would never end?
What if I said?
Oh we've both had our share of loneliness
So whose to say that we can't have a little happiness
And if I found that in you
It would make my dreams come true
Or would you walk away?
Hear what I have to say
What if I told you
What if I said that I love you?
How would you feel? What would you think? What would we do?
Oh or do we dare to cross that line
Between your heart and mine?
I've always wondered from the day that we met
What if I said
What if I said?
What if I said?
