

Anita Lipnicka & John Porter, Nobody Else

They say everything has already happened
The world just repeats itself
Theres nothing new for us to discover
Nothing wise left to say
I know I cant teach you a thing
You havent learnt before
Whatever Id like to tell you now
You already know
But Ill try
Just one time
And Ill say:
Look at the Sun its so bright!
And it shines just for you
Theres nobody else
What you believe is your choice
Its your life, so come on!
Dont waste it away
Just give yourself another chance
They say everything whats already happened
Will happen again and again
It doesnt matter if someones missing
Theres no one that cant be replaced
So each morning you look for a reason
Just to open your eyes
But if you dont find on deep in you
Youll never find it outside
So, here I try
One more time
And I say:
Look at the Sun its so bright! etc.
There are so many roads you can take
There are still many things you can change
Just give yourself another chance
Just give yourself another chance and
Look at the Sun its so bright!
And it shines just for you
Theres nobody else
What you believe is your choice
You can do what you want
Whatever they say Just give yourself another chance
