

Ann. Pham, Mistake

So calm, so calm,
I know I have to go
It's only time to run
I know that
I made, I made, I made mistake

I have to tell you
What I did for sure
I can say why
Baby, you should know
That I'm afraid
I wanna run away
I wanna close my eyes
And wake up on the other side

so calm, so calm,
I know I have to go
It's only time to run
I know that
I made, I made, I made mistake
so calm, so calm,
I know I have to go
It's only time to run
I know that
I made, I made, I made mistake

I have to tell you
What I did for sure
I can't stop myself any more
Baby, you should know
There's complicated
I'm on my way
To be a (?) girl
I wanna run away

It's so calm, so calm, so
I know I have to go
It's only time to run
I know that
I made, I made, I made mistake
so calm, so calm,
I know I have to go
It's only time to run
I know that
I made, I made, I made mistake

This time has come
I found the courage
To fight that fear
Now, I'm a different girl
And it's time to disappear
This time has come
I've changed myself
I'm a different girl
And now I understand
That thing's won't be the same again
