

Anna Abreu, Everywhere I Go

I walk along the streets,
Remembering the past,
Whispering my wondering mind,
I knew it did

Everywhere I go,
Deep inside my soul,
Walking down this lonely road,
Everywhere that I go

I see the light in your eyes,
Taste the moisture of your kiss,
A breath of life in your sweet cologne,
It lets me know that I exist

Traces of your light,
Disappeared from my life,
I wish that I could hold you now,
But I can only cry

Everywhere I go,
Deep inside my soul,
Walking down,
this lonely, lonely road,
Everywhere that I go

Everywhere I go,
Everywhere I go,
All along on this lonely, lonely road,
Everywhere that I go

Everywhere I go
