

Anna Abreu, Shame

I walked around,
And through the empty halls,
I could hear the sound,
Echoing a call,
Of a love so strong,
That gently slipped away,
Now there's no one left to hold today,
You know what they say

When your heart is bleeding it'll heal in time,
But what if I myself am guilty of the crime,
Cause I see

I didn't realize I had it all,
Instead I chose to take a fall,
Now it's all the same,
And I've me to blame
Now I'm left alone with my shame,

Painful whispers,
Shouting in my head,
Things that were bright yellow,
Are now black instead

I had a secret meeting with a strange desire,
I couldn't get enough it only took me higher,
Now I see

I didn't realize they had it all,
Instead I chose to take a fall,
Now it's all the same,
And I've me to blame,
Now I'm left alone with my shame

The picture of us on the window seal,
It's not replaced with dust,
And your fingerprints are gone,
And now loneliness is a friend of mine

I didn't realize they had it all,
Instead I chose to take a fall,
Now it's all the same,
And I've me to blame

I didn't realize they had it all,
Instead I chose to take a fall,
Now it's all the same,
And I've me to blame,
Now I'm left alone with my shame,
Left with all my shame,
My shame
