

Anna Grace, Ready To Fall In Love

Hey, hey!
Come over here look in my eyes
Can't you see the way I feel
Come over here look in my eyes
Oh, oh...
I know that you've been hurt before
And I can know the way it feels
But now it's time to let it go
Ready to fall in love again
I open up again
Ready to fall in love again
I open up again
Look into my eyes
Ready to fall in love again
I open up again
Ready to fall in love again
I open up again
Look into my eyes
Come over here look in my eyes

See now what you do to me
Come over here and realize
Oh, oh...
Just know that love won't hurt no more
If you learn how to love yourself
Now hear me I came at your door
Hey hey hey hey
Ready to fall in love again
I open up again
Ready to fall in love again
I open up again
Look into my eyes
Ready to fall in love again
I open up again
Ready to fall in love again
I open up again
Look into my eyes
