Anna Maria Jopek, Insatiable

My fever goes deeper It rises, surprises Im leaving the light on Dont feel no shame Ive watched you shower But Im so sorry I dont know your name

The wedding bells
The wishing wells
Im sorry, not for me
No need to confess
The passion I possess
If thats not alright
Well youre not my type
I couldnt care less

Its insatiable Dont think, give in Lose your control

I used you, abused you You cant think what to do You know youre a big boy Get over it Maybe its your turn Learn to forgive, and learn to forget

Its insatiable Dont think, give in Lose your control

My fever goes deeper I'm cooler than ether Its not up to you, to melt my veneer The heat that I needs Supplied everytime that youre near That you are near

That you are near
