

Anna Tsuchiya, Every Moment

Look up the sky.You can see me
Oh my life is like a shooting star Disappear before I wish my dream
Life is too short,We need more time.
I tried to find my way
Hard to find the truth
But I knew you are the one
I shall be a blue sky
To guide your broken wings
I play a song so that you are not alone
I shall be a river
to take your tears away
Baby I promise I'll be with you every moment
How much the left,Rush baby rush
Don't ever look back,Don't ever look down
Time won't stop,Rush baby rush
Time never take me,To that time for you
I tried to find my way
Hard to find the truth
But I knew you are the one
I shall be a blue sky
To guide your broken wings
I play a song so that you are not alone
I shall be a river
to take your tears away
Baby I promise I'll be
with you every moment
I'm not a good girl.Im not perfect
I couldn't do anything for you
I felt the song of love that you have given me
I want to say thank you in my heart
I shall be a blue sky
To guide your broken wings
I play a song so that you are not alone
I shall be a river
Baby I promise I'll be
with you every moment
I shall be a blue sky
To guide your broken wings
I play a song so that you are not alone
Baby I promise I'll be
with you every moment
