Annie Lennox, Pattern Of My Life

I like to wake alone, to lie and turn to stone Comfort me, oh come to me, I won't go on I like to walk along, to keep my head screwed on Comfort me, oh come to me, I won't go on Believing, believing I believe you might turn from your love Wait around, if I go I'm alone, if I stay it will mean waiting on my own It's the pattern of my life when you care and you cannot feel And you know that it's for real So you leave me on my own to live the pattern of my life Take time to be all this and more to me You're the best, so well done you, I won't go on Believing, believing I believe you might turn from your love Wait around, if I go I'm alone, if I stay it will mean waiting on my own It's the pattern of my life when you care and you cannot feel And you know that it's for real So you leave me on my own to live the pattern of my life Pattern of my life, pattern of my life Wait around, if I go I'm alone, if I stay it will mean waiting on my own It's the pattern of my life when you care and you cannot feel And you know that it's for real So you leave me on my own to live the pattern of my life Pattern of my life, pattern of my life Pattern of my life, pattern of my life
