

Annihilator, Haunted

Locked away, sentence, insanity
Living out this hell from year to year
So many voices down the hallway
Screaming out in paralyzing fear
Tell me, why I suffer, tell me, why I'm here
I am haunted, I am haunted
Demons in the darkness, just make 'em disappear
I am haunted, I am haunted
White coats surround me, they inject anxiety
Nothing but a memory
Bright lights above, so fascinating
Is that a scalpel coming for me?
Tell me, why I suffer, tell me, why I'm here
I am haunted, I am haunted
Demons in the darkness, just make 'em disappear
I am haunted, I am haunted
I am the light, I am the way
Just reach out and touch me
Come take my hand, you'll understand
You know you can trust me
Come back to me, come back to me
Just follow the bright white light
I feel no pain, but it's not the same
Something is just not right
Waking up, what the hell have you done to me?
Blackened figures roam about the room
I cannot breathe, I'm sliding underground
They've buried me in my own tomb
Tell me, why I suffer, tell me, why I'm here
I am haunted, I am haunted
Demons in the darkness, just make 'em disappear
I am haunted, I am haunted
