

Annihilator, Hunger

I like to feast on thoughts of anger I like to prey on evil minds and I like to rip the very fabric that keeps them all intertwined I'm full of lies, just hold me as you die I wrench this vice, my human sacrifice you beg and I feed, your blood is all I need rapture, ecstasy, it's time to bleed for me I love the dark and screaming madness no one can see through my disguise the sewer rats are just a snack but I'm here to crush your petty lives
I'm full of lies, just hold me as you die
I wrench this vice, my human sacrifice
you beg and I feed, your blood is all I need
rapture, ecstasy, it's time to bleed for me I am a never-ending nightmare and I dream of swallowing the sun my eyes burn to embrace you nowhere to hide, nowhere to run I'm full of lies, just hold me as you die
I wrench this vice, my human sacrifice
you beg and I feed, your blood is all I need
rapture, ecstasy, it's time to bleed for me
