Annihilator, Kicked

Kicked, dropping to the knees Face first into the dirt Betrayed, a stab in the back Everything is now on alert Wounded, sense the blood Like a jackal moving in for the kill Stealing is nothing to you It's just a part of the drill Beware the Judas He'll drag you down A deal with the devil Can put you underground Target, preying on the weak Taking and abusing the trust Ruthless and morally bankrupt Your word is left in the dust Liar, nothing but a thief Sell them everything that you got A master of friendly deceit No one's gonna care when you rot Beware the Judas He'll drag you down A deal with the devil Can put you underground Beware the Judas, Judas He'll drag you down A deal with the devil, devil Can put you underground

You know I'm coming for you I'll take you down If you leave, I'll take it all away No one's gonna believe a word you say Just another promise broken No exception to your rule I'm sick and tired of being taken And played for the fool Let's kick in Stronger than ever before Now you are the one in the dirt Sentenced, incarcerated Paying for the pain and the hurt Breaking, you're falling to pieces Ripping at the seams Victims, we're coming to haunt you In your dreams, in your dreams Beware the Judas He'll drag you down A deal with the devil Will put you underground Beware the Judas, Judas He'll drag you down A deal with the devil, devil Will put you underground
