Peace Pain And Regret

Ive known a lot of funny people

The ones that make us laugh

Ive known a lot of lonely people

Calling from the past

And in my darkest hour

I find the place where I fit in

Somewhere between the heavens

And the devils weary grin

I always will be haunted by the ones Ive loved

Yes I always will be haunted by the ones Ive loved

In my eyes

Ive known a lot lovely people

Though they never spoke to me

Ive known a lot lovely people

And they never meant a thing

So bring on the piper or the jesters lonely heart

For even the happy man gets lonely in the dark

I plan to be high beneath the sea

So dont hold your breath-just breath

We are the ones that make you laugh

Forget about your troubles

Live in peace, pain and regret

And forget all your troubles

We are the ones that make you love

When you have no one at all

Yes we are the ones that make you laugh

Yes we are the ones
