

Anointed, Not The I But The You In Me

You have walked into my life
You have painted all my dreams
Til the color of your love is the color of me
You can look into my heart
And you can read my mind
You can read about yourself in between the lines

Chorus:

Every good thing I have done
Everything that Ive become
Everything thats turned out right
Is because Youre in my life
And if I ever teach a child the way
Ever learn myself to change
Ever become who I want to be
Its not the I but the You in me.

You have looked into my eyes
You have seen what I am
But still, Youre by my side
Telling me I can

And there are times Ive caused you pain
And times Ive made mistakes
Somehow you used them all to make the I you made

Repeat Chorus

And if I ever wondered for a hundred, thousand years
I would never understand

How youre in me

And Im in you

And you could say

You are the reason why I am

Repeat Chorus
