Anorexia Nervosa, Stabat Mater Dolorosa (2004)

(Lyrics by RMS Hreidmarr)

We are the Sun
We are the dead stars
We are the black sky
Invading your room
We are the candle
The only light
We are the machines of the past
Forever victims and murderers of your joy

We are Death
The ancient knowledge
The source of origin
The red and white sacred hatred
Enthroned, materialized
The wrath of heaven and hell united in one
Worship us, be faithful
Beautiful great and cursed

Vexilla regis prodeunt, fulget crucis mysterium Vexilla regis prodeunt inferni

We are the...
Mother of suffering
Bringer of virtue
Possess the Holy, drink the wine
Arise my son, follow me
I've felt the wounds of our race

We are the shadows of all your fathers The ancestors of those who suffer Come, when my hand will die upon Thy forehead, you'll breath in the flames

Stabat Mater Dolorosa, fulget crucis mysterium Stabat Mater Dolorosa, vexilla regis prodeunt

Be without doubt as you've been without weakness We will open the five roses We will awake the seven churches of the final confrontation

Mother of suffering Hater of mercy, divine whore Mother of fanatics Be sure we'll meet again

Stabat Mater Dolorosa, fulget crucis mysterium Stabat Mater Dolorosa, vexilla regis prodeunt

Chatiee d'etre nee putain Non, chatiee d'etre nee trop tard Une seule nuit ne suffit plus A nous separer du paradis perdu

Mother of suffering Hater of mercy, divine whore Mother of fanatics Hold me, we'll be united as one

Stabat Mater Dolorosa

To serve and to obey Here is your tragic destiny Your only choice is the name of your Lord and Everything Your illusion of madness and liberty Sealed your eternal enslavement Slaves to your race

We are the Sun We are the dead stars We are the night sky We are the New Obscurantis Order
