

Anosha, Infactuated

It wasn't an ordinary day
So caught in a world when in the days
Something's so different in the way
He made me feel
Feel Like I'm just caught in illusion
Don't know why he fills my heart with so much confusion
Try to win the race but I always end up losing
When it comes to love I guess that there's just no choosing
Infactuated, with all of you
You got me crazy, with the things that you do
I can't explain it, try to keep in control
But I just can't retain it, and I can't let you go
Secretly calling out his name
Hear his voice over and over again
Whispering softly in my ear
He wants me to...
Feel Like I'm just caught in illusion
Don't know why he fills my heart with so much confusion
Try to win the race but I always end up losing
When it comes to love I guess that there's just no choosing
Infactuated, with all of you
You got me crazy, with the things that you do
I can't explain it, try to keep in control
But I just can't retain it, and I can't let you go
The look in his eyes got me so hypnotized
And I try and I try, but I can't fight emotion
I'm losing control
And I cant let you go
No I cant let you go
Infactuated, with all of you
You got me crazy, with the things that you do
I can't explain it, try to keep in control
But I just can't retain it, and I can't let you go.....
