Gratuated Fool

Graduated fool...
that is what i am
for everytime i've failed you cuz you're so beautiful i just turned and walked away a jingle with words
tangle my tongue
stammering stutter
so i wrote you this song to finally tell you what you've known all along i love you
believe in me.
believe me.
it was true devotion
all these mixed emotions
so i did it again
i want you to forgive me
when the pain is faded, yeah we'll be loving again
believe in me.

Graduated fool...
i'm better than i am
that is what you make me please hold back your tears i didn't deserve you any way, no.
believe in me
i still care for you
believe me
just believe in me
believe me
when i kiss your face again
all these mixed emotions
of pleasure and pain
i want you to forgive me
we'll be lovers again... and again, and again
believe in me
you're so beautiful
believe me
just believe in me
believe me
