

Ansel Elgort, Thief

Call me a thief
There's been a robbery!
I've left with her heart
Tore it apart
Made no apologia

I've been living in the darkness
Shadow in my apartment
Heartless
Ticking nervous
Just to spill it on horseman
Next page and I'm out again

I've been living in the night life
Lips hit you like a drive-by
Frostbite
Ice cold
The men to cut you like a sharp knife
Next page and I'm out again

Skin on my skin
What a wonderful sin
Take you breath but you're asking for more
The tip of my finger is tracing her figure
I say goodnight and walk out the door

Call me a thief
There's been a robbery!
Tore it apart
Made no apologia
Just Call me a thief
Shame was on top of me
Then I left with her heart
Broken and scared
Made no apologies

Don't be so hollow like a rib cage
The echoes follow
Follow me like the ... swallow
Been drowning all my mistake
All I know that was skin like a ...
My bed would be drenched in the scarlet rose red
Been drowning all my mistake

Skin on my skin
What a wonderful sin
Take you breath but you're asking for more
The tip of my finger is tracing her figure
I say goodnight and walk out the door

Call me a thief
There's been a robbery!
Just Call me a thief
Broken and scared
