

Anthem, The Young And The Hopeless

Hard days made me,
Hard nights shaped me,
I don't know they somehow saved me,
And I know i'm making something,
Out of this I think of nothing,
I take what I want,
Take what I need,
They say it's wrong but it's right for me,
I won't look down,
Won't say i'm sorry,
I know that only god can judge me,
And if I make it through today,
Will tomorrow be the same,
Am I just running in place,
And if I stumble and I fall,
Should I get up and carry on,
Will it all just be the same,
'Cuz I'm young and I'm hopeless,
I'm lost and I know this,
I'm going nowhere fast that's what they say,
I'm troublesome, I've fallen,
I'm angry at my father,
It's me against this world, and I don't care,
I don't care.
And noone in this industry,
Understands the life I lead,
When I sing about my past,
It's not a gimmick, not an act.
These critics and these trust fund kids,
Try to tell me what punk is,
But when I see them on the street they got nothin' to say.
And if I make it through today,
Will tomorrow be the same,
Am I just running in place,
And if I stumble and I fall,
Should I get up and carry on,
Will it all just be the same,
'Cuz I'm young and I'm hopeless,
I'm lost and I know this,
I'm going nowhere fast that's what they say,
I'm troublesome, I've fallen,
I'm angry at my father,
It's me against this world, and I don't care,
(I don't care.)
(I don't care.)
(now, I don't care.)
I'm young and I'm hopeless,
I'm lost and I know this,
I'm going nowhere fast that's what they say,
I'm troublesome, I've fallen,
I'm angry
