

Anthony Hamilton, Ain't Nobody Worryin'

Ain't nobody worryin' when the shots fly high and the siren starts to ring
Ain't nobody worryin' when the kids die young and the mothers are suffering
Ain't nobody prayin' when they kneel down low all they doin' is tyin' their shoe string
Ain't nobody worryin' no more no more

The homeless have no where to turn when their stomach starts to burn cause they ain't got food to
How the children gonna learn when they gotta take turns cause they ain't got books to read
Then a babys turn to cry
Started gettin' high cause the job trains kinda slow

Cause ain't nobody worryin' no more no more
When the tears start to fall and you can't see your way
Carry on, c'mon judgement day
You don't have to mourn, help is on the way
Cause ain't nobody worryin' no more no more

These are our precious times
Ain't nobody worryin' when the kids die young and the mothers are suffering
Ain't nobody worryin'
