

Anthrax, Revolution Screams

The ship is
Sinking, the rats start to drown
Stunning
Such beautiful violence abounds
Questions come
Easily, you got to
A world filled with chaos and rape, you got to
Hope springs
Eternally, you got to
Not from blind faith
The guilty will pay
Yeah, to the wall
Revolution calls and empires fall
Yeah, by any means
Revolution screams
Justice
Finding the truth that will out
An assassin
Comes from within or without
Questions come
Easily, you got to
A world filled with chaos and rape, you got to
Hope springs
Eternally, you got to
Not from blind faith
The guilty will pay
Yeah, to the wall
Revolution calls and empires fall
Yeah, by any means
Revolution screams
I had a dream, by any means
Revolution screams
Revolution screams
A sense of apathy
Crushed with the smallest resolve
This beautiful violence
As the powers come crumbling down
Revolution, who's side are you on?
Revolution, who's side are you on?
Revolution, who's side are you on?
Revolution, who's side are you on?
Scream!
Yeah, to the wall
Revolution calls and empires fall
Yeah, by any means
Revolution screams
I had a dream, by any means
Revolution screams
Yeah, by any means
Revolution screams
