

Anthrax, The Constant

In a time or place
And do you know my face
And how it is I know you
Something so familiar
Can't recognize
And I slip, and I slip
As I slip unstuck in time
Gotta find my constant
Or my mind is lost
Stronger, than any stretch of imagination
Spanning, my world my all
Am I here now in between undivided?
I am whole now, so hear me
Scream as my heart pounds
Moving so fast now
I am here, I am here
Lost in the moment
Caught in the current
I am here, I am here
Scream as my heart pounds
Burn the past down
I am here, I am here
Now close my eyes, take the past and
Burn it, burn it, burn it
Burn it down
I'm here I'm there
Slipstream I scream
Tell me you hear me
My time is here and my place is now
And I slip, and I slip
As I slip through space I'm tethered
A lifeline to cross time back to you
Stronger, than any stretch of imagination
Spanning, my world my all
Am I here now in between undivided?
I am whole now, so hear me
Scream as my heart pounds
Moving so fast now
I am here, I am here
Lost in the moment
Caught in the current
I am here, I am here
Scream as my heart pounds
Burn the past down
I am here, I am here
Now close my eyes, take the past and
Burn it down
If I could change one thing I'd Take back all of the lost time
I spent away from your side
Go back and make it right
Am I here now in between undivided?
Am I here now in between undivided?
Am I here now in between undivided?
I am whole now, so hear me
Scream as my heart pounds
Moving so fast now
I am here, I am here
Lost in the moment
Caught in the current
I am here, I am here
Scream as my heart pounds
Burn the past down

I am here, I am here
Now close my eyes, take the past and
Burn it down
