

Anti-Flag, Good And Ready

You'll get yours when your good and ready
You'll get yours and go straight to hell
And when that day comes
You can be good and sure the day belongs to us

The sign said "Detour", so i did
And i found myself in a wonderful place
Fields of green where the wild flowers grow
The kind of place one could grow old
The sky opened up
The sun showered down
Onto a row of wooden pikes
What an awe-inspiring sight

You'll get yours when your good and ready
You'll get yours and go straight to hell
And when that day comes
You can be good and sure the day belongs to us

Life is a horror show and baby it will never stop
They tell me to watch my step I answer back "You watch your mouth!"
So many stories you have told
You and your stories have grown old.
SOS who will save our ship?
SOS who gives a shit?
Sinking like a rock with a heart of coal
Sinking like a rock without a soul
Please note: Dont underestimate me, Cause i can be a cruel motherfucker

You'll get yours when your good and ready
You'll get yours and go straight to hell
And when that day comes
You can be good and sure the day belongs to us

The new dawn starts this day
As strange and savage poetry make up your eulogy
Tables turned around and turned on you
No one sheds a tear
No one loses sleep
You disappear
We fall asleep..
