

Anti-Flag, I Can't Stand Being With You

I Can't Stand Being With You

Everything that you did Everything that you said
You may as well be down at the mall cause that's no different, than being at the bar

I saw that look in your eyes
It made me realize that you changed, changed from what you were,
and now you're no better than a pop culture whore

I can't stand being with you
I can't stand the bar scene you're in too Can't you see what you've become,
It's every fucking thing
that you swore you'd always snub I can't stand being with, being with...

Sit there like all the old fools perched up high on your bar stool One day you told me, "I'll never be like them..."
but I don't see a difference from the outside looking in

All the punks at the bar like they could start up a war Revolution plotted in a bottle, the thought makes the laugh and 1 turn on some Nirvana

I can't stand being with you
And I can't stand the drugs scene you're in too Can't you see that what you've become.
It's every fucking thing
that you swore you'd always snub?
I can't stand being, being with you!
